

WARNING FOR TALKING ABOUT FULBRIGHT

DISCLAIMER:

I do NOT want anyone to be harassed or sought after because of this document. I am just bringing information to light. The mod team at Cozy are full of normal people who just want to play Minecraft. They have done nothing wrong, they simply just did what they were asked as Moderators do. CozyMC, or turnipthejam, is the only person who is at fault here. Regardless, do not harass him. I only want to see CozyMC(the server, not turnip) undergo reforms to be what it should be, a great, public, vanilla Minecraft server. TheMightyBunny is also mentioned a lot throughout this document, but they are a very kind person outside of Minecraft. Do not harass them or see them any differently.

I worked on this document on my own and no other person(s) assisted me in it. All screenshots and information I gathered on my own after being an active player on Cozy for a couple of months. If anyone BUT me gets banned for this document, it only solidifies my claims.

I also understand that many will see this document and not want to quit the server due to the hard work and hours they have put into the game. I understand completely. Even now I wonder if it's really worth it to come out with this, when I can stay quiet and keep playing, but Cozy disrespected me personally and I don't like that. NO KINGS.

Goodbye all, especially my friends.

Context:

Fullbright is a bannable mod on COZYMC for being unfair in the context that not everyone can use the mod and since you can use it to find ores easier, it is cheating.

A similar mod which is allowed is Litematica. Litematica allows you to paste blueprints of builds into your world, allowing for the building process to be significantly easier.

Cozy, CozyMC, CozySMP is also Creaking, CreakingMC, CreakingSMP and turnipthejam, lockecoal, CreakingPS5, unwaveringband. Their name changes as the server name had changed from Creaking to Cozy, and the last 4 names are their MC accounts.

Cozy MC: Community Survival 12:46 PM

hello

i think i need to warn you about spamming chat repeatedly about breaking our rules it seems quite toxic to me, which is not allowed

tokyo 12:47 PM

what rules did i break?

Cozy MC: Community Survival 12:47 PM

being toxic/trolling

you have gone beyond making your point that you are dissatisfied about the fullbright rule

tokyo 12:47 PM

im gonna need recipets

Cozy MC: Community Survival 12:47 PM

and now you're being warned

tokyo 12:47 PM

there was not a single time where i intended to be toxic or troll anyone

Cozy MC: Community Survival 12:47 PM

go outside

take a break

before i ban you

tokyo 12:48 PM

???

Cozy MC: Community Survival 12:48 PM

fair warning

tokyo 12:48 PM

interesting

Cozy refused to explain where I was trolling and/or being toxic, so I had to look at it myself. They say 'fair warning' at the end, but this was nothing but a threat sent directly to me and then refused to clarify anything. Going off my information from other people, if I dm'd asking for clarification there is a very high chance I get banned.

The silencing of drama

A mod who went by the name TheMightyNym was banned from the server along with their entire friend group. The reasoning for their ban was 'bad intentions'. In CozyMC, bad intentions typically means griefing, like blowing up structures that do not belong to them. Thanks to the plugin 'CoreProtect', all grief can be fixed in around 2 minutes. This doesn't matter though, as their ban reason was false.

TheMightyNym had undergone inappropriate messaging with their girlfriend. These messages were private, as they used the /msg command to hide the messages from the public. I do not have the exact content of these messages, but I do know it did not have anything to do with anyone BUT Nymfy and their girlfriend.

CozyMC, who at the time was named Creaking since the server was CreakingSMP, used a plug in the mods were not aware of to read these messages. Following the reading of the messages, he leaked them to the admins of the server and banned Nymfy and her girlfriend.

Following this, they proceed to ban anyone who was closely related to Nymfy in an attempt to stop drama from spreading. These people had no clue why they were banned.

Explaining how I found Nymfy's discord account

Nymfy and her friends blew up their OWN base prior to leaving the server so no one else could use it. This is not bannable as it was consensual and their own property. The explosions did not affect anyone who did not agree to the grief. The mods undid the grief anyway.

The 'pigguy' was also banned and was a part of their planned grief, as well as a member of the nation.

‘Bunny’ is an admin named TheMightyBunny. She has been on the server for an extremely long time. She also spends the most time on the server. She has a history of creating rules that people dislike, and yet she shows no remorse. It is used as a show of power.

Nymfy

5/6/2025 6:58 PM

after we did that we got off i think we did that on a sunday monday would be the end of us which we alr assumed we would get banned monday went normal as usual like any other day in the server until bunny decided to /msg me saying "can we talk"

tokyo

5/6/2025 7:00 PM

uh oh
can we talk

Nymfy

5/6/2025 7:00 PM

i said mhm
she wrote saying why i stopped talking to her or rather why i havent said anything to her for the past month i said im usually afk most of the time or just really busy doing my own things she left it at that tho i got sus
tho i didnt get banned for making a revolution against bunny

tokyo

5/6/2025 7:02 PM

i mean thats not really a reason to ban you you were just selling fish wait so like what rules? the one with like the moss carpet in the end?
cause ik bunny said genji also was really upset with the rules and thats why he quit

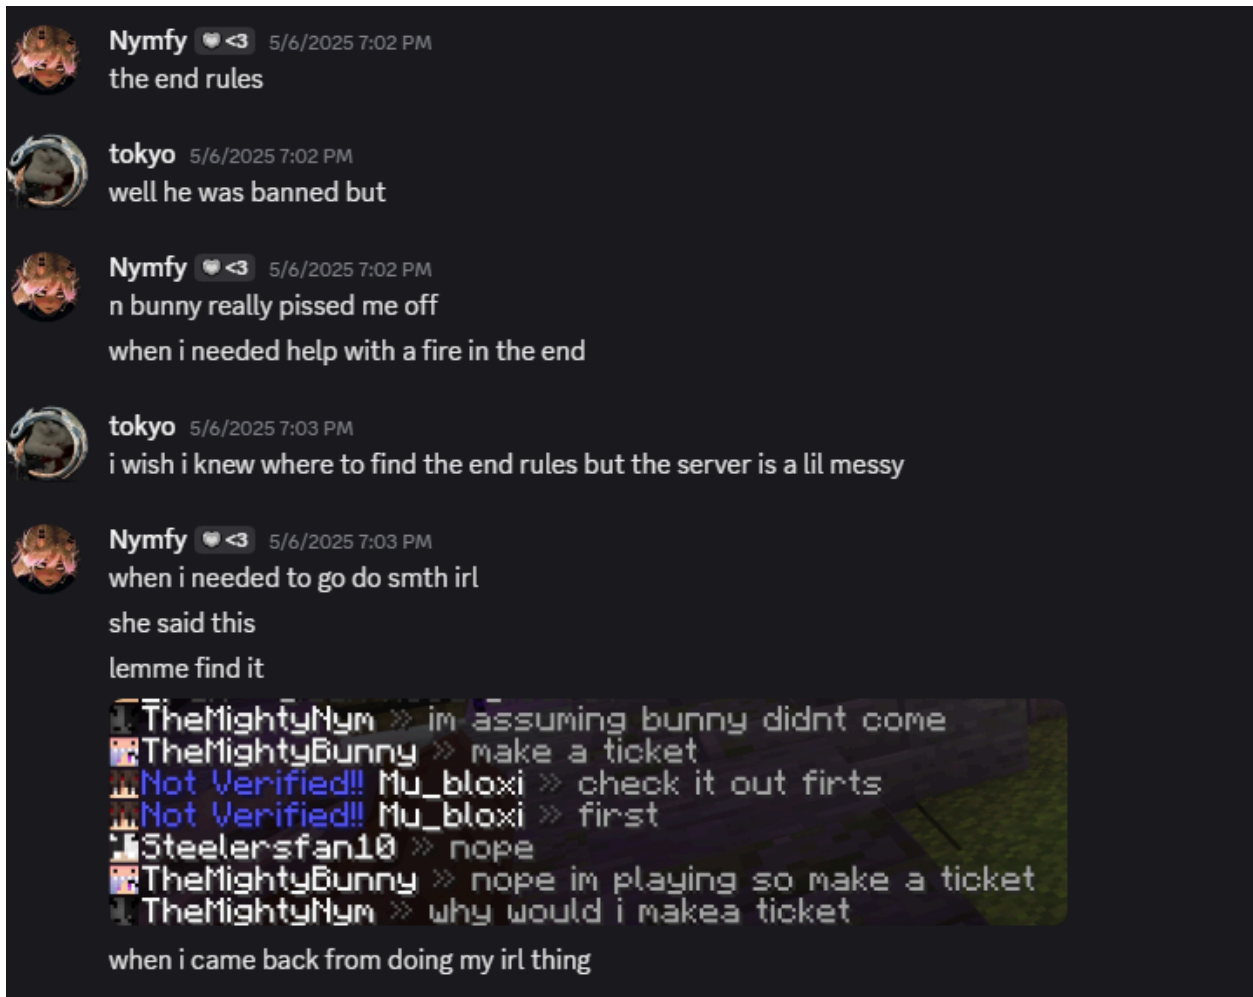

Nymfy

5/6/2025 7:02 PM

the end rules

The ticket system is something Bunny takes a lot of pride in. She constantly refers to it when she is asked for help. It should be noted Bunny is the only moderator who constantly tells players to make a ticket instead of simply helping. As mentioned previously, it takes around 2 minutes to undo grief with CoreProtect. This means Bunny would only need to stop playing for just TWO minutes to help.

Something else that's important is the fact that Bunny is on the server for over 10 hours a day.

OHH i remember that i think i was there

Nymfy 5/6/2025 7:04 PM
yes lol

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:04 PM
i was wondeirng why she does that too i literally asked her later like why does it have to be in a ticket

Nymfy 5/6/2025 7:05 PM
ik lol

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:05 PM
if all the mods are online and smth is happening why not just tell u

Nymfy 5/6/2025 7:05 PM
all mods most of the times say open a ticket
except me

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:05 PM
and she said sum about like "theres a ticket system" or sum

Nymfy 5/6/2025 7:05 PM
ive never said that once

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:05 PM
goat

Nymfy <3 5/6/2025 7:05 PM

its why sometimes ppl called me instead becuz i would just tp
instead of coming up with that crap tho i got banned cuz the owner checked my /msg history

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:06 PM

uh oh
does creaking even do anything but like sit there idont think he even plays the game

Nymfy <3 5/6/2025 7:07 PM

n apparently privacy doesnt exist on that server then tokyo does creaking even do anything but like sit there

Nymfy <3 5/6/2025 7:07 PM

eh not really
he doesnt really do much

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:07 PM

yeah they have a lot of rules that are like kind of crazy like its very um demanding

Nymfy <3 5/6/2025 7:07 PM

he tries to make events n such

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:07 PM

not very free

Nymfy <3 5/6/2025 7:07 PM

but at the end up the day its us making the ideas

tokyo demanding

yea
so creaking checked my history right

Creaking, who is now Cozy, is always online. They have 4 (known) alt accounts in game and constantly checks discord. They do nothing for the server but host it and upload posts on Reddit. All events and moderation are left to the playerbase.

yea
so creaking checked my history right
n saw things
before i tell u
im dating holly
or hol1zy

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:08 PM

uh huh

Nymfy 5/6/2025 7:08 PM

if u know her idk

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:08 PM

ive seen her like username
thats about it

Nymfy 5/6/2025 7:08 PM

but she sent me
a 18+ msg on /msg

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:09 PM

o..
and he saw?

yea
he saw us saying shit tho i understand not to publicly say what we said to the server but we did it in /msg for a reason

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:10 PM

yeah i get it privacy

Nymfy <3 5/6/2025 7:10 PM

meant to be private

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:10 PM

i didnt know they could check /msg

Nymfy <3 5/6/2025 7:10 PM

not for all
yea its a plugin
which mods had no clue
until now since i got banned

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:10 PM

wtfff

yea

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:11 PM

wait thats so weird

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:11 PM
wait thats so weird

ik right
after i got banned
somehow ppl knew i did steel got angry
n well after all my members found out they decided to quit
since i wouldnt be around told baka
to blow up n burn dreams saw it live lol
we where all in call since baka was the only one not banned

ohhhh

Nymfy 5/6/2025 7:12 PM
then baka found paulpig join in time

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:12 PM
yess it all makes sense

told him me n holly got banned so he decided to come with us in our own server

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:13 PM
that sucks though

Nymfy 5/6/2025 7:13 PM
tho to keep hell n baka last longer in the server

Yo

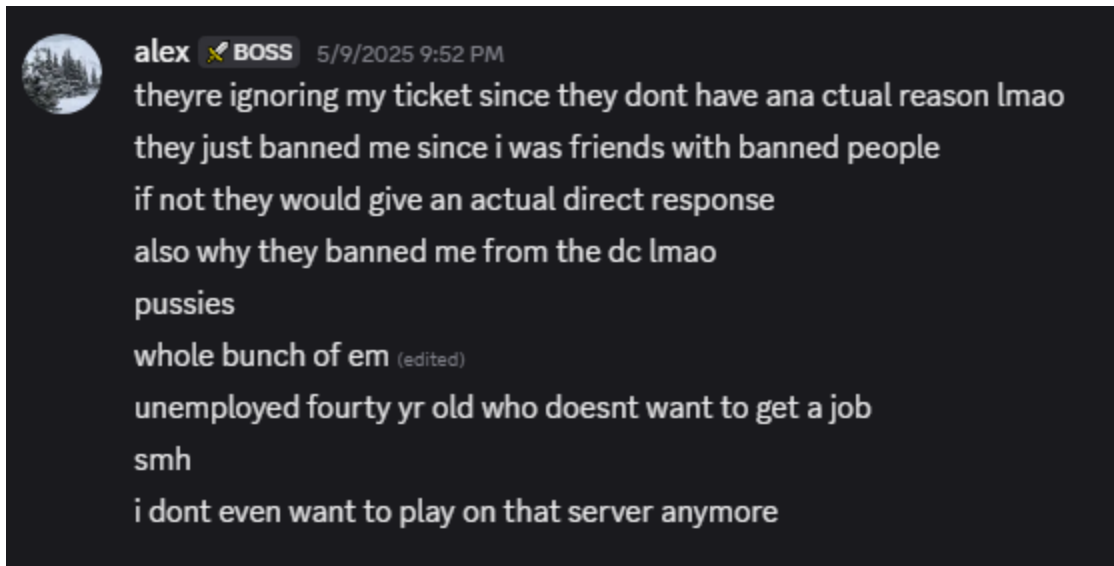

Dreams is the nation made completely up by Nymfy and her friends. This is the only nation that was 'griefed'.

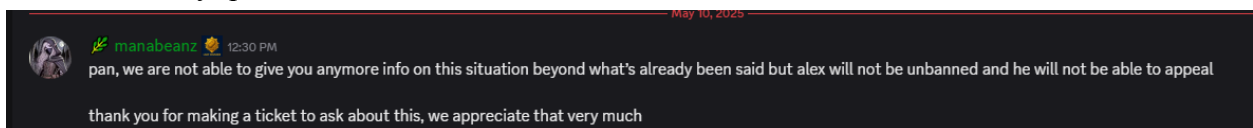

In order to maintain the servers reputation, Creaking ordered the ban of anyone who asked questions about banned mods or anyone who was banned in this ordeal.

Alex, a member of Dreams and a friend of Nymfy had no part in the drama. Destroyed by the banning of everyone he knew, he attempted multiple times to contact the mod team and Creaking to ask questions. He was always ignored and/or warned by them without getting an actual answer.

He was banned when he was offline and had no reason as to why he was banned. He also couldn't ask any questions since he was banned in the discord as well.

Manabeanz, a moderator on the server who actually does her job, responded to me with this when I opened a ticket. I'm sure if she could have, she would have told me what really happened, but she was most likely forced by Creaking or Bunny to not say anything regarding the situation.

Nymfy 5/6/2025 7:35 PM

all mods know what i did since creaking told them in mod chat

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:35 PM

bro wtf

thats pervert behavior

yep

tho idk why they still all have me friended lol except bunny

she removed me

tokyo 5/6/2025 7:36 PM

probably none of them actually wanted u gone

it was prob just bunny and creak

Cw_For_The_Win 11:58 AM

They banned tasnima

She didn't even do anything either

Sonorous 11:58 AM

Lmaooo

holly 11:58 AM

they're just banning everyone who knew us or was affiliated with us that's so unfair

Cw_For_The_Win 11:58 AM

She said her ban reason is because she's friends with me

oh my god

Sonorous 11:58 AM

HUHHHH

Sonorous 5/8/2025 11:47 PM

Its ridiculous

Only nym holly and steel should of got banned

And then everyone who grieved

But i didnt even grief

Its so stupid

They probably wont tell me why i got banned because there was no reason

Sonorous 5/8/2025 11:54 PM

And i cant even talk to them myself which is how they make me quiet. Even if i have my friends make tickets, none want to be banned so theres no way for them to unban me

Dangg

I asked other players who have been on the server significantly longer than me, and they were each told different reasons as to why Nym and her friends were banned.

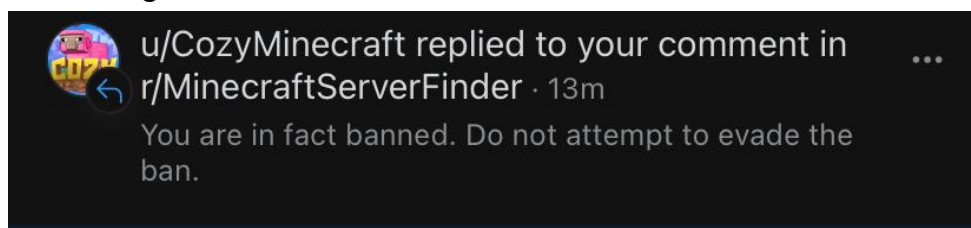

Cozy will obviously attempt to deter from the situation and simply say that he was following TOS. This would be acceptable if he had made it like this from the start. /msg IS a private message function, /msg standing for /message, and if their chat had been flagged by Microsoft, the player who sent the message would receive a suspension and/or ban according to how bad the message was. According to previous situations that were similar to this, no action would be taken against the server.

Not all messages, regardless of their content, are flagged by Microsoft. Most messages that get flagged by Microsoft contain harassment, abuse and hate speech. Nymfys messages were 18+ but did not contain any harassment or hate speech. As for sexual content, which is important for this scenario, you can turn off the filter for 18+ accounts on Java.

<https://help.minecraft.net/hc/en-us/articles/8047895358605-Our-Commitment-to-Player-Safety>

Now lets just say what Cozy is stating is true. This would not require the banning of the entire friend group OR the leaking of Nymfys messages. Once again, Cozy is attempting to make up for his image.

While investigating Cozy's public image on an alt account, I mentioned the fact that the server was corrupt. Cozy replied saying that I was a random person on the internet and banned from the server, trying to be salty about it. I replied saying I was NOT banned and instead I had quit the server months ago. Cozy, not knowing who I am at all, replied with this and then blocked me so I could not respond.

I used this alt account to see how Cozy would react to leaks and very obvious internet ragebait, and although they attempted to appear professional they seem to have gotten too far in over their head.

It should also be noted that the OP (original poster) replied to my message stating that they used to play on Cozy and did not enjoy it.

MORE BELOW

THE GAP IN RULES

The rules were recently redone so I do not have screenshots of the old rules, but they were very vague and misleading. Even now, there are plenty of gaps in the rules. Cozy knows this and simply states that they 'arent perfect' and allows mods to enforce rules even if they aren't written down.

One major rule is no sexual content. This got Nymfy banned, even though it was in private messages, and almost got another player named D0tz banned. D0tz asked how to breed villagers, but instead said 'how do I make the villagers have sex'. His warning was understandable. What's not understandable is the fact that mods are allowed to get away with breaking rules.

TheMightyBunny has an alt account named RopeBunny, and her profile picture states 'RopeBunny'. This is a sexual term, made to describe someone who enjoys being tied up during sexual actions.

When I questioned Bunny on this, she simply stated that she would not be changing her name or her profile picture. It should be noted that you can have a server profile picture that is different from your discord one.

Another rule that was broken by Bunny and went unpunished is excessive swearing.

At one point in time, I had my mace renamed to 'fucking hate this thing', to talk about my distaste for maces and macepvp. I never used the mace, and since PvP is not allowed without consent, the name shouldn't matter. Someone challenged me to a 1v1 and I won, killing them with my mace. I immediately received a warning for excessive swearing, although the word only appeared once.

Bunny constantly swears in VoiceChat and is not told to stop. This is a clear powertrip, and also shows she lacks the understanding of the word 'excessive'.

While its clear rules like no excessive swearing and no sexual content are in place to protect minors, since the server is 13+, what doesn't make sense is their advocating for gambling. A group of players extremely close with the admins created a Casino which is public to all players. Obviously it is just there for fun and games, and typically one would pay no mind to it, but it shows that the server does not actually care about their child playerbase. This just seems funny since it's a MINECRAFT server, a game filled with children.

Unfortunately, I lost some of the screenshots and all of the recordings. I wish I had them. The recording contained TheMightyBunny talking about blue axolotls and her wish to stop people from mass breeding them so she could sell them across the End (shopping district). (Refer to screenshots of Nym selling blue axolotls for this to make sense)

Cozy, formally known as Creaking, runs this server with an ironfist. He does not tolerate any badmouthing of the server in order to keep its reputation held up high. I have nothing against any of the moderators, as they only do what they are told. I have nothing against any of the players, as they are oblivious to what is really going on. I only hope Cozy will one day move on, get a girlfriend, maybe even a couple of friends, and change his ways. He even went as far as to lie to some of the mods.

If I were to ask for Cozy's opinion and his point of view on this topic, I would most likely be asked to drop it or be instabanned without any real reason as to why. After this document gets sent out, I will swiftly be banned and Cozy will have two options:

Address the situation, or threaten to ban anyone who talks about it.

The more likely choice is the latter, but one can hope that he will change and actually do something himself for once and address this. The chances are still slim though.

In the event he does address it, he will likely use fake evidence or attempt to slander my name and preserve his. I ask that you, the reader, challenge his claims and get the whole story. I, myself, do not have the whole story. I simply have what I was given by MULTIPLE people, not just one person. I will not post every screenshot due to privacy reasons, but there are more.

Minecraft is for everyone. It should stay that way. It is a way for you to be yourself, make friends, and expressly freely and creatively. Rules are there to maintain the balance and to keep everything fun for EVERYONE. Cozy has gone out of their way to revoke this right from people they simply do not like. It is VERY distasteful.
